The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is one of the most ancient feasts of Mary. As far back as the fifth century, the church in Jerusalem celebrated a feast of Mary on August 15, which became known in the Eastern Church as “the day on which Holy Mary expired.” In the seventh century, it was introduced to the Western Church as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Church teaches that when the earthly life of Mary ended, God assumed her, body and soul, into heaven. Pope Pius XII proclaimed the dogma of the Assumption on November 1, 1950. A legend says the apostles found flowers upon opening Mary’s tomb.

BE ALWAYS HOPEFUL

Consideration:

In any tribulation and difficulty do not abandon yourself to despair or to anguish of the heart, but turn with trust to your heavenly Father.

In any state of darkness and aridity of the spirit, during the temptations of despair, place yourself more deeply into the Heart of Jesus and strive to will and to do what He wants and does.

Prayer:

Eternal Father, I am unworthy of Your graces; nevertheless grant them to me through the infinite merits of Jesus and Mary. I offer You the most precious Blood of Jesus Christ in thanksgiving, as if You had already granted all the graces I have requested for me and for all, now and always.

SCRIPTURE INSIGHT

1 Kings 19:4-8,
Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9 (9a),
Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2,
John 6:41-51

In John's Gospel, Jesus is engaged in his "Bread of Life discourse" to gathering crowds following his Galilean signs at Passover. This festival celebrates God's power and presence among the Israelites during the Exodus and Sinai covenant. Covenantal symbolism ensues as Jesus presses his audience to be open to God acting in him now just as God acted in the past.

Jesus now proclaims, "I am the bread that came down from heaven" (John 6:41). He embodies God's gift of manna in the Sinai wilderness. The crowd questions how Jesus makes such claims when they know his origins. Jesus then reveals himself as the one who makes God known. Who Jesus is, and what he does to bring others to life, is possible because God is "the Father who sent me" (John 6:44). Because of Jesus' origins in God, he alone, much more than manna, makes God known and gives life both here and hereafter. Those who believe in Jesus, the Bread of Life, will not perish as did the manna and those who lived by it.

For Israel, the manna stopped when the people of God took possession of their land, but a new "bread from heaven" continued: the Law of Moses. Jesus insists that he is the "true" bread from heaven. He does not annul God's former gift but brings it to completion. He perfects God's gift to Israel in the Sinai covenant and gives life to all who partake of his offer of himself.

† In his worst moments of suffering, Elijah lied down with hopes of never rising. After a rest, God gifts him with sustenance that revives his vocation. How do you recognize such sustenance in our world?

† Through the Letter to the Ephesians, Paul counsels us to imitate God and love as Christ loved. How does this resonate for you?

† John's first Gospel audience, people who must believe without seeing Jesus, are faced with a problem like ours today. Where do the people in the Gospel encounter the Son of Man who will give them the Bread of Life? Where do we?
